

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS TO THE JOURNAL

«CUADERNOS DE BIOÉTICA» (2025)

Cuadernos de Bioética, the official journal of the Spanish Association of Bioethics and Medical Ethics, is a four-monthly publication containing research articles and bibliographic reviews covering the whole field of bioethics, especially those connected with research and clinical practice. Contributions are initially revised by the editorial committee or are invited papers. Articles that do not conform with the instructions detailed below will be returned to the authors. The journal accepts article for publication in Spanish or English.

— Address: Papers will be sent to L.M. Pastor. E-mail: bioetica@um.es. Also if there is any difficulty to L.M. Pastor. Departamento de Biología Celular e Histología. Facultad de Medicina. Universidad de Murcia. Campus Ciencias de la Salud. Avda. Buenavista nº32. 30120 El Palmar, Murcia, Spain.

— Material: If they are not sent by e-mail, two printed copies should be sent on DIN A-4 paper, accompanied by a PC formatted electronic support. The first page should contain the following information: 1) Title in bold capital letters in Spanish and English; 2) Full name of the author or authors (also in bold); if the authors have an identifier Orcid should include it; 3) Institution to which the author/s belong (in italics); 4) Address, telephone number, fax and/or e-mail address; 5) Short title of the article; 6) Between 3 (min.) and 5 (max.) key words, which will serve for classification and search purposes. The second page should contain a summary of the article in no more than 250 words in Spanish and English. At the end of the text and before the references, the following sections must be included: Acknowledgments (if you wish to do so); Contribution of the authors when there are more than two; Conflicts of interest; Funding source (if any). The text It must have continuous numbering for all its lines.

— Text: The text should be written in Word.7 or more recent version, with margins of 2.5 cm, on DIN A-4 paper, at 1.5 interline spacing and justified, Times New Roman size 12 letters should be used as type face. Footnotes should appear on the same page in consecutive order.

— Bibliographical references: All references should appear at the foot of the page and be accompanied by any commentary. Also, at the end of the article to order by alphabetical order all bibliographical references in the section: References. To harmonize the presentation of the journal bibliographical references should fulfil the norms that follow:

a) To cite books and book chapters

— Author's surname with first letter as capital letter.

— Author's initial (capital letter).

— Title in italics.

— Publisher, city, year of publication and pages referred to.

For example: Spaemann, R. Personas, Eunsa, Pamplona, 2000, 72-75.

To cite chapter of a book:

— Author's surname with first letter as capital letter.

— Author's initial (capital letter).

— Chapter title between inverted comas («...»). In: title in italics, followed by publisher, city, year of publication and pages referred to.

b) To cite articles

- Author's surname with first letter as capital letter.
- Author's initial (capital letter).
- Title in inverted comas.
- Complete name of the journal in italics.
- Year, volume, number, initial and final page of the work.

For example: Marcos, A. «Neuroética y vulnerabilidad humana en perspectiva filosófica». Cuadernos de Bioética. 2015; 26(88): 397-414.

If a volume or journal is cited for a second time, cite it as follows:

Spaemann et al., op cit. 111.

If the next work cited is the same as the previous Ibid, 103.

c) To cite web page:

Doherty, M. [On line publication] «Redundant publication». 1-4. 1998. <<http://www.bmj.com/misc/cope/text5.shtm>> [Consulted: 5/08/1998]

— Reviewers: All the articles received will be reviewed by at least two members of the editorial or scientific committee of the journal. Their decision will be forwarded by letter or e-mail to authors, along with the comments of the reviewers (blind review). The editorial committee's decision is final as to whether a paper should be accepted for publication.

— Editorial rules: The papers submitted for possible publication must represent unpublished and original work and should not have been submitted to another journal at the same time. When the papers are submitted a certificate of originality and the transfer of copyright should be sent by ordinary mail. The time between receipt and possible publication of the article ranges from 6 to 9 months. The editorial committee will proofs. The journal subscribes to Código de Buenas Prácticas en Investigación de la Universidad de Murcia: <https://www.um.es/web/comision-etica-investigacion/codigo>. During the year 2023, 52.3 % of the manuscripts received after your peer review have been rejected. During 2024, 61.9% of manuscripts received after peer review were rejected.

— Offprints and copies: After acceptance of the article, the authors have to pay € 250 (VAT not included) for publication expenses, indicating the editorial committee how to do it. Authors will receive a free copy of the journal issue where their article is published. After accepting the publication of bibliographic reviews, the author or authors must pay € 50.

Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0)

Cuadernos de Bioética is published in the electronic edition of the journal under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) (legal text) license. This license only allows others to download the works and share them with other people, as long as their authorship is acknowledged, but they can not be changed in any way nor can they be used commercially.